Your Health BY DR. R. S COPELAND

Fear, Anger

Pew persons realize that the body even if properly noursiered is not in perfect health unless its owner possesses a proper state of mind Certain emotions disturb the functions of the body and in this way interfere with normal health.

Excitement fear and anger are common causes for digestive discontent To have digestive discontent on certain glands must manufacture normal quantities of certain substances. In addition to the poor digestion other functions of the body may become disturbed. No doubt you are familiar with the expression coid aweat and know what I mean by the term. This is caused by temper anger fear and worry it leads to maintenance of the skin caused by confraction of the hiord vessels. There glands secrete a substance called adrenolin Increased amounts of adrenolin cause the pupils of the syes to dilate it makes the hair stand orect contracts the blood vessels attraulates the heart and stops the action of the digestion canal. When we are frightened or emotionally upset these changes are emphasized.

It should be part of everybody a training to learn how to avoid anger fear worry excitement and other distressing emotional states. Certainly it is silly to worry because half of the time the trouble we worry about never comes.

I believe that happiness and chearfulness are hebits. They can be acquired as other habits are it is only possible to acquire this healthful habit by assuming that there is something to be glad about in every situation in lite.

The Stars Say-For Wednesday Jan 29

An eventful day with the elements of surprise and sudden visitation is pressed from the predominant lurar and mutual supects. This sudden breaking up of old crystalized conditions may be the means of important rearrangement of the affairs with new interests and environs. This profitable and progressive situation will be fostered by those in influence in big business probably arising as a reward of merit stranfastness and hard work. The social affiliations also will have many surprising and pleasant angles. Those whose birthday it is may find themselves confronted by a year of sudden and surprising change of radical benefit following the breaking up of old stagnations or delays. A child born on this day may have many unusual talents being industrious and faithful to important interests who will be in friendly mood for cooperation. ## HERE ARE THE REAL FACTS ABOUT BRAN

Brought Out by Tests with Kellogg's ALL-BRAN

Some years ago there was considerable difference of opinion regarding the use of bran. So to discover the actual facts of the case, the kellogg Company asked for a series of laboratory tests at leading universities

Experimental studies on a group of healthy women showed that the continued use of bran was thor-oughly satisfactory. Unlike ca tharties, it did not lose its effect

Conspectionally absent from all comment on the AAA reversed is the suggestion that formers might be able to get along without some abbitions for the regulation imposed by the editatment program. There have been derials that agriculture is going to colleges immediately as a result of the aupreme court's decision, but that is as far us most Americans curs to gai This is un important fact. It means the farm population has a firm hold on the country's sympathy. It means popular opinion is triendly to the cause of farm teiled of some kind or other. It means, furthermore, that most critical are aware of the influence which the farm vote exerts on legislators. Something more than an unfavorable decision by the supreme court would be required to prevent farmers from retting assistance. It should not be forgodien, furthermore, that many farmers never liked the AAA. It did not command Universal respect among agriculturists.

The inclination of legislators to help farmers is exceeded only by their inclination to help veterans. Schemes to improve the condition of agriculture are as numerour as achemers. Long before AAA, Republican administrations were turing to help farmers, and long after AAA has been tings brages silv author died eatheriot cultural benefit programs as executal. Ferm ald, in short, always has been a matter of means, never of intentions. One more method has been tried. Another will be found to take its place.

Live and Let Live.

Maxim Litvinoff: vigorous denunciation dies to notatioique is expinitation of sulfcommunist prejudice by capitalist governments may or may not be jurtified. Strangely enough, M. Litvinulf is one of few men in the world capable of speaking authoritatively on the most point of communictic propaganda. If other governments did not believe the Third Internationale was trying to foment world revolution, there would be no occasion to expicit anti-communist prejudice. The thing which keeps that prejudice alive is the suspicion that Soviet Russia's leaders do not confine their activities to their own government, but encourage subversive movements in other

M, Litvinoif has denied the charge in a Hery speech at General. He has declared that Itusels is not guilty of the charge of subeldising and directing anti-capitallet movements in other countries. He has objected to the use of the charge to create opposition to the Soviet Union. Russia, he pays in effect, wants to live and let live It wishes its neighbors would adopt the same policy. They, on the other hand, with Russia would quit interfering with their affairs. Obviously, somebody must

The trouble probably her in the fact that the creed of communism has many preachers and only one church. Consequently, every propagandust and every malcontent who turns to communism is identified closely with Russis, the one authoritative duciple of the doctsine. Under the circomerances, macond-retanding is unavoidable. Unfortunately, the close alliance of the Third Internationals with the Soviet government deepens the impression that Russian communists, who say they want to live and let live, are insincere when they cry out against intolerance.

What's a Man Worth?

Rome's announcement that 5,000 Ethi omans and more than 700 Italian and native troops have been killed or wounded in heavy fighting on the northern front gives the African war a more muiderous aspect than it has had heretotore. While it is reasonable to suspect that Italian casualties are conservatively reported and Ethiopian casualtles are exaggerated, there is no doubt the conflict is exacting a heavy pilse in lite.

Unfortunately, it's impossible to set a value on the life of a man. However, if some arbitrary fixure were used, say $5,000. it would be possible to visualize roughly what the Ethiopian campaign is costing Italy and Ethiopia over and above the direct cost in materials. For instance, if fatallites were to total no more than 20,000 the manpower cost on a basis of $5,000 would reach $100,000,000. That is more then Italy could expect to derive from the territory it wants in at least a generation. Furthermore, $100,000,000 would be insignificant compared with the direct cost of the exminsten.

But, though $5,000 is ridiculously low, it must be assumed that governments place a much lower value on a man's worth. At feast 8,500,000 men were killed in the World war, while poer not bounds them who and from somes where can be traced to the rate Ormothy, nothing on make could to which so entermose a price. ### Too Much Speech.

The second controversy between the Remitican National committee and the (Namehia Broadcasting system introduced the public to the scape over freedom of the air. It may be expected that as the matter in sixed up certain definite conclusions will be reached.

Publication by the Columbia eye'em of the correspondence between he exercitives and representatives of the Republican national committee offers erveral interest ing points not developed at the moment of the controversy. For instance, it is appearent that broadcasting officials are worrying more about ways and meats of scatte taining really free speech than they are worrying about the abetract processive of ires specific

Inevitably, the first duty time in closely with the second. Broadcasters much use their "editorist" judgment wishty, or they will be in hot water. They realize they will be to hot water anyway, but that is one of the comme which all exercisers of "editorial" judziuent muet bean. Due to rigid limitations on time they could not give politicians as much time as they demand even if they dated to rick boring distances with too many political presents-

Listeners, us the wools, even to be getting a decemt break in the Columbia system's policy of refuelty to let politicians take as much radio time as they want. when they want it. There can't be too much freedom of aprech, but there can be too much speech. If that is what broadcasting officials are trying to get across to the compatguers, they will not lack support from the public

In The Beginning.

Damage done by the late Sen. Long's fillbroater against the appropriation bill which provided funds for administration of the social becurity set is being repaired as fast as legislative machinery can be moved. The sum of $47.974,500 has been approved by committee to meet the cost of the social eccurity program until the beginning of source of expenditure has been added to the government as well as to, the direct contributors to the huge funds demanded under the autial accurity plan. It is the most expensive single jegiclation ever adopted by any government. In full operation it would necessitate a greater collection of money than the entire establishment of the national government uses at present. The money, obviously, will be subtracted from the part of capital available for wages.

In the beginning of the experiment with rocial accurity, the ultimate meaning of the plan necessarily is hard to discover-The fact that opposition is beginning to lake form proves, however, that some of the results siready are being foreseen with apprehension. A few days ago in New Jeisey, for instance, the legislature was advised by the governor not to accept the lederal plan of social accurity. "The elate of New Jersey," the said, "should take legal action to require the gederal government to return to the taxpayers the taxes which, I am competently advised, will be unconstitutionally levied and collected."

Social accurity enthusiasts must face the unpleasant fuct that passage of the act in the session of congress which met in 1935 does not guarantee its acceptance. The circumstances under which the act was adopted, without benefit of more than a few hours of legislative debate and with scarcely any popular discussion, insured difficulty in the future. The more the country learns about the experiment to which it has been committed the more the sponsors of the experiment are bound to learn about the country. The first leason will concern the necessity of having legislation originate at the bottom, instead of at the top. If the social accurity act is fundamenally sound. It will survive Sound or unsound, however, it is bound to Anythody who saw and heard Al Beniral deliver his address could but not have been impressed with the profound sincernive an ordinary political speech. It was not an ordinary political speech. It rose shows the beigints of personal ambition or party advantage. Some day, when the turnous acid the shouting disc and historiam food back on the fateful words of Mr. Smith, this speech will be ranked with those of Abraham Lincoln delivered in the critical period preceding the Civil war, when overtired the famous debate with Expect Douglas.

Douglas. For At Smith per into carefully exocen words the feeling of millions of his country-toen, who believe in constitutional covernment, in government by laws and not by the arbitrary whilm of man, in government by direct and explicit methods of constitutional amendment to meet social changes and scomment victisfication and constitutional amendment in meet social changes and scomment to the second changes and someoners in some constitution. in government by ususpetion, by subter fuge, by circumivention or even by teneral

Speaking the simple, howevery larguage of one who rose from news senting on the sidewalks of New York City to be the chilef executive of a great state. All South fought impersonably but effectively in his address against demographery and the setting up of class against class in America. It was no new role, no after hought of 1935, no hindsight that so often is better than foresight—on the contrary amore who cares to reread Al South's processorant against Prackin Propercies so-called "forgotten man" speech, at St. Paul in the carry part of 1922, will see a striking similarity in the argument made even then had the speech of last Saturday night. Political effects of the South speech are difficult at this time to estimate with particularity, Certainly, he has given heart to the constitutional Demograph, who to the committee and Denocrab of the nation. But if President Rosewall, who was listening in, did not also denote some important guidance from the Smith and dress, it will be a supprise to those who have always credited the President with a keen political intuition.

If Al Smith accomplished nothing eigethan to express to Mr. Rossevelt himself in nomistaskable words the wording that millions of citizens are beamoning to think seriously about the danger of the new deals adventures in unconstitutional government and to excite the larger of the new deals adventures in unconstitutional government. ernment and to remind Mr. Remsevelt that ernment and to remind bit Rousevelt that anywhere from 2,999,995 to 2,999,695 votes—which is believed to be Al Smith's minimum strength—may be lost to the Democratic party, it was worth while se a service to the President. For it is not too late for the President to give head to the sound philosophy of his former collection. league-the happy warrior "

Indeed, the address was a keynote speech if ever there was one. It was a clarion call to the Constitution. There was in the speech every argument of importance that has been made in the last two and a naid years by oppositute and critics of the new deal, but it was phrased not in the high-brow language of legal controversy or in the obtuse and conderous words of some of our political protagonists, but in the language that the average man could un-

Today the new deal knows the case that can be made against it not by those who it thinks can be easily struck down with epithels about "colvenched greed," but by liberals, social-minded persons like Al Omith.

At Smith.

The fact that the speech was made the auspers of the American Liberty League, assumit which the administration has been directing its shalls because of the number of wishing men who have backed it, did not distorb Al Smith, who was quick to point out that anylody who sets out to destroy (strits) must inevitably being shoul to point out that anylody who sets out to destroy excital must inectiably bring about the destruction of labor. He appeared ready for the challence, confident of his own ability to make the American people understand that he was not afraid to speak anywhere, at any time, under any susplices for, as he expressed it.

"I represent no group no man, and I speak for no man or no group, but I do apeak for what I believe to be the interest of the great tank and file of the American people, in which class I belong."

The administration may be getting ready to "enter" Al Smith, It would not be surprising. A senate speech last week afreaity intimated as much. But this would be a mistake. For whatever Al Smith says is I are a sincerity, which at the outset of his remarks, he so firmly established when he anopunced that he was not a candidate. For any non-retion by any party at any time?

Mr. Smith's stratery in reading the Democratic platform of 1822 plank by plank, and calling for 1's endorsement and fuffilment, his statement that Mr. Reoseveit had described the Democratic party to embrace the 1822 platform of the Sociality navels is taken.

as resement that Mr. Rossevelt had de-artied the Democratic party to embrace the 1932 platform of the Socialist party is indi-cative of what may be expected to be the nature of the forth-raming stringle in the pre-comention months.

Throughout the South, for example, in the Democratic amounts the Democratic primaries, which are equiva-lent to elected, senators and representa-tives are seen to be nominated: Will oppotives are seen to be nominated? Will opposition cardidates climbing to be real Democrats, oppose the renomination of those, who have voted for socialism in congress through acceptance of various new deal Tritargers!

This is likely to be far more important In the princip months than the perfunctory selection of delegates in the South for the Democratic convention at Philadelphia. It seems certain there will be a protest on the floor of the convention against social-falle principles and a record vote on what constitutes the main argument Smith made - namely, an effort to secure the re-adop manely, an effort to secure the re-adoption of the 1932 Denineralle platform.

The whitele for reveit in the Democratic party is not the American Liberty league. Al Smith spoke at the banquet, but that of janization has Republicans and Democrate in it and will doubtless not a ricitization the campaign as a rotificial note at a in the campaign at a political party at all. In Georgia the Talmadge-Kirby convention, to be held in a few days, is much more of a Democratic rebellion.
